

FC UNITED JOB OPPORTUNITY: CASUAL FOOD AND BEVERAGE STAFF

FC United is an equal opportunities employer and positively encourages applications from suitably qualified and eligible candidates regardless of sex, race, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, religion or belief, marital status, or pregnancy and maternity. We are committed to ensuring that all candidates for employment and voluntary roles at the Club are treated fairly, and that selection is based solely on the individual merits of candidates and on selection criteria relevant to the post.

OVERVIEW

FC United is one of the leading supporter-owned football clubs in the country, playing in the National League North and offering sports and community facilities from our iconic Broadhurst Park stadium site. We operate a function room with two standing bars, open on match days and functions, plus an additional match day bar located under the St Mary's Road stand.

We are looking for food and beverage staff who can help us provide a good quality service when the function room is in use. This will currently be a casual part-time role.
