

FC United of Manchester – Reconvened General Meeting – 15 May 2016

		For the reconvened meeting on 15 May 2016 can that same member...?
		...attend?	...vote by post?	...appoint a proxy?	...do nothing?
For the meeting on 24 April 2016 a member*...	...attended	Yes, you can still attend and vote.	Yes, your postal vote must be received by the Club office by noon on Thursday 12 May 2016.	Yes, your completed proxy form must be received by the Club office by noon on Thursday 12 May 2016.	If you do nothing then you will not have used your democratic voting rights.
	...voted by post	Yes, but you will not receive voting forms as your postal vote still stands.	No, your original postal vote still stands.	No, your postal vote still stands.	Yes, your postal vote will be counted.
	...appointed a proxy	Yes, you can attend and vote instead of your proxy.	Yes, your postal vote must be received by the Club office by noon on Thursday 12 May 2016. This will supersede your proxy nomination.	Your original proxy nomination still stands. However, you can nominate a new proxy.	Yes, your proxy nomination is still valid and your proxy can still attend and vote on your behalf.
	...did none of the above	Yes, you can register as a latecomer and vote.	Yes, your postal vote must be received by the Club office by noon on Thursday 12 May 2016.	Yes, your completed proxy form must be received by the Club office by noon on Thursday 12 May 2016.	If you do nothing then you will not have used your democratic voting rights.

*You must have been a member on 24 April 2016 to vote at this meeting

 A proxy need not be a member of the Club (Rule 57c)